CONFERENCE BYLAWS

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the Conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, included rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These churches are listed by Districts.

4. Reports by both Church Secretary and Minister's shall be mailed in time to arrive at the Conference office by the tenth of each month. All churches shall report on monthly, semi-annual and annual reports to the Conference. Semi-annual reports are due in the Conference office by July 10 and January 10. Annual reports are due in the Conference office by January 10.

Pastoral Changes

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on a date determined by the Conference Board preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

3. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Conference Board for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church board makes a request to the Conference Board contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Conference Board. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

Ministerial Candidates – Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall be a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of their application for license.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination or the Conference Board shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine and reputation. Each candidate shall provide a credit report no more than six months old. The personal credit report shall not be distributed to the Committee but shall be reported on to the Committee by the Chairman , the Conference Superintendent.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses of studies approved by the General Conference or the equivalent offered by any college approved by the Conference Board.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight clergy members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers offices.

4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions Committee.

Finances—Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the general program of the Denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing Superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay at least one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The Conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the Conference office by the tenth of the following month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job, it becomes mandatory that:

   a. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the Conference Board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

   b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

   c. The church shall review the pastor's salary at least annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of the pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

   d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the Annual Conference Session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of Conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of Pastoral change, the church, which the pastor is leaving, will pay his salary and benefits through the final week of Pastoral service mutually agreed upon by the Church Board and Pastor, or in agreement with the Conference Superintendent and if Necessary, the Conference Board.

   e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

   f. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

   g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The Conference Treasurer shall pay the premiums for the Superintendent. The Church Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Church Education Director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the Evangelism Director. These stated Departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

   h. In keeping with the General Conference Minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the Conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

   a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less that the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

   b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

   c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist, without giving at least thirty days' notice, if the Evangelist is unable to fill that time slot in his or her schedule, that church shall pay the evangelist.

9. The rate for official travel shall be the current rate set by the Internal Revenue Service.

10. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses for one move of a retired minister up to the limit set by the Conference Board.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

Vacations

1. The Conference Superintendent shall be given vacation on the same basis as Pastors described in item 2. of this section. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

2. Pastors should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule which is based upon his total years in the pastorate, not just the years at his current pastorate:

   One to five years.....two weeks
   Six to Fourteen years.....three weeks
   Fifteen years and up.....four weeks

   Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct not more than three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her Department but not less than applies to pastors.

Local Church—Ministerial Relations

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor. Any effort to start a new church must be under the supervision of the Conference Superintendent and the Evangelism Director.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not engage in any activity or conversation that would cause confusion and creates a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor. He/she shall also leave a complete file of minutes of all Church Board Meetings.

Use of Conference Facilities

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of a Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the office of the Conference Superintendent shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nomination Committee for all Conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the date for the Christian Worker's Institute and select the speakers for the Institute and the Falcon Camp Meeting.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

It is with gratitude to almighty God that I stand before you today to report personally and to give the state of the North Carolina Conference. Many emotions flood my heart. It is a great honor to stand before you as your Superintendent. So many, greater in talents and abilities have stood before this Conference. I am honored but deeply humbled by the opportunity.

I am a 3rd generation Pentecostal Holiness Christian. Thanks be unto the Lord that I found Him on Valentines Day in 1965. Thanks be unto Him for a Godly heritage both in family and church leaders. Thank you mom for your love, prayers, and support for fifty years. Thanks be unto Him for a wife, friend, and faithful companion of twenty-seven years. Thanks be unto Him for three fine sons, one precious daughter-in-law, and two yet to be. (Together these will provide Betty, the Queen, and I with seven grandchildren.) Thanks be unto the Lord for the spirit-anointed clergy and churches of the N. C. Conference. You have given me a place of ministry for thirty years as a clerical minister and six years as a lay minister.

As this is my first report as your Conference Superintendent, I wish to pay special tribute to the three Superintendents I have ministered with. Rev. J. Doner Lee - you gave me my first advice as a God-called preacher. You chaired the committee that gave Betty and I our first church. You dedicated our first son. You continue to be my friend, neighbor, advisor, and competitor in the tomato-growing contest of Falcon. Rev James D. Leggett - we planted our first new churches together. You went on to lead Evangelism USA in the first year ever of planting over one hundred new churches. You taught me to trust God, follow His leading, but above all maintain a walk of integrity and honesty. You have been a source of challenge to Bible study and Biblical preaching. Rev. T. Elwood Long - you have been my friend, mentor and traveling companion for eleven years. You released me and encouraged me to minister and find my place in Him. You have taught me to love people. You modeled before me the right priories of ministry – God, family, and others. To each of these three I say Thank you!

I am enjoying being your Superintendent. As I learn each day more how to balance the many duties and change the many hats, the enjoyment level rises. My first calling is to preaching and teaching. I love hearing from God and casting vision, but that still is secondary to the preaching and teaching of His Word.

Thank you Jimmy Whitfield, Assistant Superintendent, and Conference Board for your leadership, commitment, and personal encouragement. You are men of vision who understand the times. You are men of personal conviction and opinion. There is not a "yes-man" among you. Praise the Lord! It is a pleasure to work with you to build the kingdom and N. C. Conference.

The Lord in His providence has given the N. C. Conference a superb office team. Brother Roland Harrell is a friend and great sounding board. God bless you Roland for your hard work and commitment to detail for the H. Ray Ward School Building Dormitory. Rev. Danny Nelson has been a friend since 1971. He is doing an excellent job as your Evangelism/World Missions Director. I have rested well at night knowing these two valuable ministries are in capable hands. Brother Charles Boyd is a pleasure to work with. He loves young people and is not afraid of hard work and diligent sacrifice in order to accomplish his mission. He also is doing well in balancing all the near thirty ministries under his portfolio. Danny and Charles have some very cable men and women working with them. To the Evangelism Board, World Missions Committee, and Church Education Ministries Board thank you for your leadership, faithful ministry, and sacrifice of personal time. A special word of appreciation is in order for Betty, Phyllis, Rose, and Laura. Thank you ladies for your love and support. You are "firsts" in our eyes.

To Rose, Dolores, Kay, Joyce, and Gina you are the best. Thank you for your hard work and great attitudes. You are Christian ladies and love our people and the ministry of the Conference. We appreciate you. You are not in the spotlight but you know just how important a place you fill in making those of us who are before the people a success. To Tommy Vaughan, you are still a "top sergeant." Thank you for a job well done. You are truly behind the scenes, under the scenes and over the scenes in all you do. You are vital part of our team.

Linda Thomas, you and your team, lead the Women of the N. C. Conference. You are not just leaders in name only. You are true leaders. I commend you for your team spirit and for making the year 2000 one of the greatest ever in N. C. Women's Ministry. You excelled in all areas of your work. Andy Griffith says one of the rules of success is to "never ever mess with the ladies auxiliary". This N. C. Conference Superintendent doesn't interfere with these ladies, he just must keep up!

Ronnie Basden, you are off and running with the men of the N. C. Conference. Thank the Lord for your heart and diligence to unite the men of the Conference. Pastors, please get behind Brother Basden and his board. The men of this Conference are a sleeping giant. Wake up men! Rise to the occasion! There is work to be done. We need each other's love and fellowship. There is a place of ministry for each one.

I am thankful for Sandra Britt who leads the ministry to our girls and Andre Davenport who leads the ministries to our boys. Girl's Ministries and Royal Rangers are fantastic ministry vehicles. Both are continuing to go thru changes and improvement. Every church ought to have these ministries functional in their church.

Lydia Figueroa, is our newest WIN (World Intercessory Network) director. She not only leads our prayer ministry, she prays. She is making every effort to help our churches and clergy understand the importance and necessity of prayer. May the Lord lead her and give her His anointing.

Pastor and Conference Board Member, Bobby Williams, has just this year been installed as our DRUSA-Disaster Relief Co-ordinator. He has chosen a well-qualified board to work with him. Bro. Williams and his board are seasoned veterans of Fran and more recently Floyd. This team will help us to be more prepared for the next disaster should it occur.

Within the last two years the Ministers Wives Fellowship has been re-organized. It is no longer directly under Women's Ministry. It now has a separate structure flowing out of the General Superintendent's office. Betty, my companion in ministry will do well in leading the MWF. She has chosen some very special ladies to work with her. She has always felt called to be a pastor's wife. She and I feel very strongly that we must develop a strong family type ministry for our clergy and their spouses. The enemy is attacking! Our clergy teams must be prepared to minister out of victory and not defeat. May the Lord help us!

A special word of appreciation and praise is in order for John Parker, Hispanic Co-ordinator, and the Hispanic leadership team-Fernando Angulo, Luis Avila, Manuel Castaneda, and Francisco Concepcion. These men with the leadership of Director Danny Nelson are breaking all records in establishing Hispanic Churches. The N. C. Conference has more Hispanic Churches than any other Anglo Conference. May the Lord give us even more and help us to reach other ethnic groups in a greater way as the American Indians, Blacks, Asians, etc.

NOW THE STATE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The Conference has been blessed but there is much to do. As we ended the first century some fantastic things occurred. Let us view the last decade.

The N. C. Conference has made some fantastic advancement in the last decade. The number of churches has increased from 164 to 197, a net gain of 33 churches. The Conference church membership has increased from 18,500 to 25,000. The average in church A.M. worship attendance has increased from 13,000 to over 17,700. This is an increase of 36%. World Missions contributions have increased from $377,988.00 to $1,287,000.00. The women's Ministry enrollment has increased from over 2,600 to over 3,300. A Conference Library has been established of over 13,000 volumes. Much has been done, but there is much yet to accomplish. We thank the Lord for the past, but we do not live there. We are looking with anticipation to the future.

The year 2000 was a catch up in some of the statistic. Here are some of the basic facts.

Closing Church Membership	25,041 down 18
Closing S.B.S. Enrollment	20,179 up 187
A.M. Worship Attendance	17,799 up 324
S.B.S. Attendance	11,325 Down 379

We have caught up now. Let us move forward!

This year we have been celebrating the Mission! The Lord has certainly blessed the N. C. Conference with a mission. I am committed to our Mission Statement and Vision Statement.

MISSION STATEMENT

The N. C. Conference of the IPHC is a full gospel organism of believers created to glorify God and increase Christ's kingdom by equipping pastors and church leaders to be successful at winning the lost, Discipling believers, and multiplying believers and churches for ministry in the 21st century.

VISION STATEMENT

The North Carolina Conference exists to enlist, disciple, train, motivate and deploy all believers (Anglo and Ethnic), clergy (Anglo and Ethnic), and churches (Anglo and Ethnic) for revitalization, soul winning and church planting.

As we move forward into the 21st century we must know who we are and why we are here. We must not allow the enemy to divert our attention away from our mission and His will. We are not called to disagree among ourselves but to move forward in Him to build His kingdom. Our heritage and present resources all have come to this point of intense ministry just prior to His coming. Our energies are to Sound the Trumpet.

Jeremiah 51:27 tells us we are to "lift up a banner in the Land! Blow the Trumpet among the nations! Prepare the nations for battle against the enemy..."

In order to do so we must develop our families-church and clergy. We must remember that our holiness heritage demands a high degree of integrity among our lifestyles, our reporting, and our giving, and all our commitments.

"Move us Forward Lord into this 21st century with victory. In His Name, Amen."

D. Chris Thompson
N. C. Conference Superintendent

COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION REPORT
Ninetieth Annual Session
Of the
North Carolina Conference
July 21, 2000

The Apostle Paul in his first pastoral epistle in I Timothy 2:4-7 states the purposes for which God called him into the gospel Ministry. He writes in verse 7, "for this I am ordained a preacher". Then he elaborates on the "this" of the statement which is the message God ordained him to carry to the world. The message is, "there is only one God, one mediator between God and man, Christ Jesus, and this Christ gave Himself a ransom for all." The central point of the message was always to be "God our Savior, (who)...will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

It is to this same high and holy calling that each credentialed minister of this Conference was chosen and anointed by God.

Today we are privileged to honor six ministers, preachers of this marvelous message, who have dedicated their lives and spent their energies declaring this truth.

FRED L. JONES

Fred Jones was first drawn to Jesus Christ at the age of 11, but like many young people drifted away from the Lord. He identifies his definitive experience of salvation, from which he has never drifted to a choice made at the Kenly Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1954 under the ministry of Rev. Alva Watson.

Fred says he knew even at age 11 that he would be a preacher. He received Mission Worker's License in 1953 and Local Minister's License in 1956 and was Ordained in 1958.

Brother Jones retired from the Harvest Temple Pentecostal Holiness Church at Raonoke Rapids, North Carolina having served 29 consecutive years.

Prior to accepting the Gum Chapel, now Harvest Temple, assignment, Fred pastored 6 other churches. Micro for 2 years, Grifton 1 year, Spring Hope 3 years, Lamms Grove 4 years, Vanceboro 1 year , and Hopewell for 3 years.

During his tenure at Harvest Temple a new parsonage was completed in 1972 and the church was relocated and the first service in the new sanctuary was conducted on October 7, 1979. A fellowship hall was added in 1986.

In April of 1998 the church experienced the tragedy of a devastating fire. The building was declared a "total loss". Under Rev. Jones leadership the church has been rebuilt and on August 1, 1999 the first service in the newly renovated sanctuary was held.

Fred says, "God is wonderful and to Him be all the glory. It was by Him and the strength he gave me that I could offer my personal labors in the building of many of the church structures". In addition to the buildings at Harvest Temple he built a new parsonage at Lamms Grove and new church plants at both Spring Hope and at Hopewell.

Fred's wife Gaynelle has been a vital part of all his ministry successes. They were married in May of 1954. Since retirement Fred and Gaynelle have returned to this home in Kenly, North Carolina.

The Joneses have three children, Stanley, Angela and Timothy.

Fred's retirement was effective December 1, 1999 with 43 years of service.

VERA ELLA GRIFFIN

Vera Griffin was born in Malvern, Arkansas to Rev. M. D. and Nellie Efird Griffin, one of six children. Growing up during the depression era the family learned to trust God, literally for their every need. Faith grew well in such an environment of trust.

Vera started preaching by the time she could talk. She doesn't remember a time when she did not want to be a preacher.

Vera attended High School in Gurdon, Arkansas and graduated from Arkansas Bible Institute of the Assemblies of God. She sang with a quartet at Bible School and later traveled with a trio. Throat surgery limited her ability to both sing and preach.

Residing in Texas in 1963, Vera traveled to North Carolina to visit with a terminally ill acquaintance. While in the state she attended a homecoming at the Thomas Chapel Church. Rev. W. Eddie Morris was the speaker. He invited her to consider ministering in the Conference. After preaching at Thomas Chapel and Gum Chapel she returned to Texas and made arrangements to move to North Carolina.

Vera received Mission Worker's License on October 1963, Local Minister's License in 1968 and was Ordained June 21, 1974.

She was assigned as Pastor of the Warsaw Church in 1964. During her term as pastor the Sunday School attendance grew from 19 to 105. A new sanctuary was built while she served the Warsaw Church.

Vera returned to the Evangelistic field in 1970 and has served as an Evangelist in this Conference for over 30 years. Being a General Evangelist she has also served as a Conference Evangelist under the Conference Evangelism program. She has also served as secretary of the National Association of Pentecostal Holiness Evangelists.

Vera is justly thankful to be from a family where she is a third generation Pentecostal preacher.

Vera's retirement was effective January 1, 2000 with 32 years of service. She is residing in New Caney Texas.

KING E. WHITE, SR.

Rev. King White dates his relationship with Jesus Christ from a Revival at the Williamston Church in April 1948. Rev. A. C. Correll was the guest Evangelist. King yielded to the call of the Holy Spirit and was saved as a 19-year-old teenager.

Accepting the call of God to become a Minister of the Gospel King attended Holmes Bible College, William Howard Carter College and Southeastern College to prepare himself to better represent the Lord of Glory.

King was licensed in the North Carolina Conference in August 1950 and Ordained in 1952. King and Janice were also married in 1952.

He was assigned to the Darlington Church in 1952 and served there for 2 years. Other churches served were: Carson Memorial – 1 year. Belfast – 5 years. Wilmington 1st – 5 years, St. Paul, Greenville – 2 years. Gospel Tabernacle, Dunn – 2 years from 1968-1970.

Rev. White transferred to the Pennsylvania Conference in 1970 and served as Conference Superintendent until February 1977 when he transferred back to the North Carolina Conference.

He served for one year in Oklahoma City as Superintendent of the Children's Convalescent Center.

King returned to Gospel Tabernacle in Dunn in 1978 where he remained as one of this Conference's most successful pastors until his retirement effective February 1, 2000 with 50 years of service.

King and Janice have four children, Sharon Weaver, King E. White, Jr. (Eddie), Allen and Jessica.

The Whites will continue to live in their home in Dunn.

MARVIN G. ROGERS

Marvin Rogers was born in Johnston County, North Carolina to Tommy and Flora Rogers.

When he was 17 years old he gave his heart and life to Jesus Christ at the Bizzell Grove Church.

Marvin and Lida Jean were married on June 7, 1956. The Rogers have two sons, Craig and Keith.

Marvin studied at William Howard Carter College and through the TEE Courses provided by Emmanuel College. He received his Mission Workers License in 1969, Local Ministers License in 1970 and was Ordained in 1972.

Marvin and Jean have pastored the following churches: Calypso – 4 years, Tyndall Grove – 2 years. Darlington – (Trinity, Rocky Mount District) – 5 years. Graham Memorial – 3 years. Nakina – 3 years. St. Matthew – 4 years. Snow Hill – 3 years and Manley Grove – 4 years.

Marvin's retirement was effective May 1, 2000 with 30 years of service.

The Rogers are residing in their home in Selma, North Carolina.

REV. RICHARD H. PARSON

Richard Parson was born in Aurora, North Carolina to Alex and Susan Parson.

At the age of 18 Richard gave his heart and life to Jesus Christ in a Tent Revival in Edward, North Carolina. Rev. Vernon Clark was the revival speaker. Two years later he enrolled in Holmes Bible College to prepare for ministry.

Richard is a high school graduate and in addition to his studies at Holmes he attended numerous TEE classes sponsored by Emmanuel College and attended Wayne Community College in Goldsboro.

Richard served in the Army branch of the Armed Services.

Richard and Jean were married in 1955.

Richard Parson received his Mission Worker's License in 1963. Local Minister's License in 1964 and was Ordained in 1966.

Richard and Jean pastored the following churches: LaGrange 1963-64, Calypso 1964-69, Warrenton 1970-71, Sharon 1971-77 and St. John 1977 to the present (2000).

In addition to his pastoral ministry, Richard has become well known since 1968 as a piano tuner.

The Parsons have one daughter, Ginger Conner.

Richard's retirement was effective July 1, 2000 with 36 years of service.

WALTER BARKLEY SATTERFIELD

W. B. Satterfield was born in Halifax County, Virginia to William and Alice Satterfield. He was born again at South Boston, Virginia in 1946.

Rev. Satterfield transferred to the Pentecostal Holiness Church through the North Carolina Conference as a licensed minister from the Church of God in 1950 where he had served as an evangelist.

During his years of service in the North Carolina Conference Rev. Satterfield has pastored the following churches: Caraleigh, Jones Grove, Lamms Grove, Pikes Cross Road, and Spring Hope as a circuit, Smithfield and Airboro. After pastoring Airboro he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and served 3 years as an evangelist.

Upon returning to the North Carolina Conference he pastored Shiloh in the Fayetteville District and Albritton.

During his time of pastoring Bro. Satterfield also worked for the Federal Government as a Maintenance Superintendent over public housing for 9 counties. He worked at this position for 31 years.

Bro. Satterfield retired effective July 21, 2000 with 48 years of service.

Rev. Satterfield and his wife Alice have four children, Lena Mae Graham, Jerry Wayne Satterfield, Nancy Fields and Bridgett Daniels.

These six Pentecostal Holiness Preachers represent 239 years of ministry service through the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. We rejoice that God called these ministers to labor in this vineyard. Innumerable souls will rise up in glory to give appreciation for their sermons and counsel and friendship. Eternity alone will reveal the good their ministry has done on this earth.

We recommend these ministers for the honor due them through this Appreciation Report, and that this Conference give a rising vote of appreciation to these ministers and their wives for their tireless service to Kingdom work through the North Carolina Conference.

We furthermore suggest that our pastors continue to give these preachers the privilege to preach in our churches as opportunity affords.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
JULY 21, 2000

"There was a man sent from God whose name was John." John 1:6 "Now there was a man named Simeon who lived in Jerusalem." Luke 2:25 "Anna, a prophetess was also there in the temple." Luke 2:36 "But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them," Acts 2:14 Again and again we could remember such words from the scriptures of men and women who came on the scene of human activity to execute and perfect the will of God. Today we would like to discuss several members of the North Carolina Conference and list those of the Falcon Camp Meeting who left us for heaven this past year.

JAMES RUSSELL CLARK

James Russell Clark was born in Martin County, N.C. on January 25, 1928, the son of Mayo S. and Mary H. Clark. He was saved in a Roanoke Rapids tent meeting in 1951. He attended Holmes Bible College in Greenville, South Carolina, graduating with a Bachelor of Sacred Literature Degree. While at Holmes, he met and later married Mary Helen Pope Daniels on August 17, 1968. He has three stepchildren.

Brother Clark was granted Mission Worker's License in 1966, Local Minister's License in 1968 and Ordained in 1969. He pastored the Antioch P.H. Church in the Alabama Conference for one year , and has served as a bi-vocational minister in the North Carolina Conference, evangelizing as opportunity allowed for the past 22 years.

Brother Clark was a minister and teacher of the Word. He was a Sunday School teacher at the Harvest Temple Church (Gum Chapel), who later accepted the call to preach. He was a quiet unassuming man who carefully and courageously moved forward to do God's will. He was placed at rest in the Greenwood Memorial Gardens in Greenwood, South Carolina.

MOZELLE HUGGINS DOWD

Mozelle Huggins was born July 4, 1916 in the home of Thomas and Daisy Jones. She was converted at an early age, eight or ten, and joined the Cape Fear Conference of the Free Will Baptist Church when she was only thirteen.

At the age of sixteen she conducted a revival in Bennetsville, South Carolina, where so many where saved that the church became too small to accommodate the people. The revival continued at the local courthouse auditorium. She was a holiness preacher all of our life.

Mrs. Dowd was a graduate of Southwestern College of Christian Ministries and was licensed to preach in the Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church in 1929. She transferred her credentials to the North Carolina Conference in 1950.

She pastored three churches. They were Jones Grove, Stedman, and West Area (now Lyon Memorial). Mozelle started the Stedman church out of prayer meetings. She organized the West Area church and remained the pastor for twenty-three years until her retirement in 1979. She was the first lady ordained in this Conference.

While pastoring in Fayetteville, she was active in civic affairs, and in 1970 was presented the "State Leadership Award" from the Extension Homemakers of North Carolina. She also was active in Conference affairs. Pastor Dowd served the Conference Women's Auxiliary as District Director and member of the Board.

She was preceded in death by two husbands, Mr. Isaac Monroe Huggins in 1975 of forty-one years, and Mr. Ambrose Dowd in 1987 of two years. She was blessed with six children – I.M. (Ike) Jr., Oscar Lee, Myra (Roberts), Margaret (Thomas), Annette (Smith), and Beverly (Raynor).

On Saturday, October 2, she went home to be with our Lord.

JOHN PAUL JONES

John Paul Jones was born in Prescott, Arkansas to Bert and Blanche Jones on February 8, 1912. He gave his heart to the Lord as a young man in Taft, California on December 16, 1938. He married Fannie Mae Morris of Rocky Mount in 1925. They were blessed with two sons – Dwight (pastor of the Garland Church) and Gregory (active in the Henderson Church).

Brother Jones graduated from Holmes Bible College with a Bachelor of Sacred Literature Degree. He transferred from the South Carolina Conference and joined the North Carolina Conference in 1946. He was ordained in 1948.

He served pastorates in Sumter, S.C., Red Springs, Millennium, Morehead City, Wallace, Moore's Chapel, Williamston, Sanford and Thomas Chapel. He retired from the active pastorate in 1978.

John Paul, as he was named, never gave up the fight! He was a Christian warrior. He and his wife Fannie Mae were a dynamic duo for Christ. He was a much loved man, father, and pastor. He slipped away to heaven on April 11, 2000.

Ralph Lambert was born into the family of Otis and Myrtie Lambert on November 23, 1925 in Duplin County. He was saved at the Thunderswamp Church in 1950. He married Ernesteen on November 9, 1949. They were blessed with two children – Sandra Lambert Britt who is currently the Conference Girl's Ministries Director and Michael who is active in the Saint John Church.

Like so many in the North Carolina Conference, Brother Lambert attended and graduated from the Holmes Bible College with a Bachelor of Sacred Literature Degree. He received his Missions Worker's License in 1956, Local Minister's License in 1956, and Ordination in 1958.

He pastored the following churches: Greenleaf (Liberty), Airboro, Saint Matthew & Garland, Red Springs, Farmville, Bethany, Belfast, Holly Hill, Emmanuel, Lyon Memorial, Goshen, and Lyon Memorial for a second term.

Ralph Lambert was one of those easily loved and liked men of God. His godly character and life of integrity lives on. He left us and moved to heaven on May 25, 2000.

JOHN R. STEAD

Jack, as he was affectionately called was born and reared on a farm in Thornville Junction, Natal, South Africa on January 28, 1916. He was converted to Christ in 1926. Growing up he learned to speak Zulu as fluently as he spoke English. This knowledge ideally equipped him for his missionary activity and earned him the affectionate title of "White Zulu".

At school Brother Stead learned accounting and worked during the Depression at a trading store in a remote African reserve. Here he learned to love the black people, He was called to preach and was inducted as pastor. The war interrupted his work. Before leaving for active service he married Gladys, his lifelong helpmate and sweetheart. They would be blessed with three children – Joan, Ivan, and Merrill.

On his return from service, he found the church he had pastored had joined the Pentecostal Holiness Mission. After studying the doctrines, he joined as well. He joined the North Carolina Conference in 1965.

He served as a part-time missionary from 1945-1951 and full time missionary from 1951-1978. He was superannuated in 1977. Jack either built, or helped to build fourteen church buildings and three parsonages. He was a great missionary.

When he retired he was carried through the streets of Kwa Mashu with the men calling out "hail to the chief." What a send off! He retired to New Zealand.

He was called home on March 2, 2000. What a welcome he must have had in glory from all the African brethren who had gone on before.

H. RAY WARD

Harry Ray Ward was born of Dalton and Nina Brown Ward on November 19, 1934. He departed for heaven on December 10, 1999 from the active pastorate. He left us too quickly! He is survived by his wife of forty-seven years, Leota Bryant Ward. Ray and Leota were blessed with two sons and two daughters. They are Tony (pastor of the Smithfield Church) Larry, Ginger, and Lisa.

Ray found the Lord in October of 1959 at the Emmanuel Church in Raleigh. It was during a revival meeting conducted by Rev. Clayton Guthrie. In the same service he was saved, sanctified, and baptized in the Holy Spirit.

Ray had moved to Raleigh from the Tabor City area and built a successful building business, but he became restless. With the call to preach burning in his heart, he joined the North Carolina Conference in 1967. He was ordained in 1974. He pastored over a period of thirty-one years. He pastored these churches: Warrenton (two occasions), Caraleigh, Smithfield (two occasions), Williamston, Manley Grove, and Lumberton. His churches always showed progress spiritually and numerically. He was a builder in more ways than one. Perhaps today he is offering advice to the "mansion building" in heaven.

In addition to those of the N.C. Conference, we recognize these members of the Falcon Camp Meeting Association.

Estelle Batchelor – she was small in statue but tall in spirit.

Bryant Horne – Oh how he blessed us with his music.

Eunice Kirby – She attended the Camp Meeting for over fifty years without missing a year. She was from Pikeville.

Lillian Thompson – She was the wife of Rev. W. E. Thompson.

Banche Lucas – Here was a woman who blessed the Falcon community with her music.

Wilbur Keel – He loved Falcon Camp Meeting and attended faithfully the last few years. He was from New Bern.

These have left us, the church militant, to join the church triumphant. Their speech has been silenced, but their ministries will live on in the lives of their children, the churches they pastored and/or worked in, and the hearts of those touched by their ministries. Because of them, many will stand with them in days yet to be and praised the Lord.

Now will the Conference stand for a moment of silent prayer in honor of their memory.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2000 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Fifty-sixth Annual Convention on Saturday, June 10, 2000 at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, North Carolina. The convention theme was "Together We Can" with the focus on Ministers' Wives.

Registration began at 8:30 a.m. in the cafeteria building with Mrs. Patsy Deese as Registrar and the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors assisting. Refreshments were hosted by the Mount Carmel Women's Ministries from Fayetteville, NC. Musical prelude began at 9:15 a.m. with Mrs. Jane Warren as pianist and Mrs. Karan Barnhill, organist. NCWM Director, Mrs. Linda Thomas introduced NC Conference Superintendent, Rev. T. Elwood Long. Superintendent Long greeted the congregation and gave the invocation.

NCWM Director, Linda Thomas welcomed everyone to the convention. A special welcome was extended to our General Women's Ministries Director, Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson. Mrs. Janice Marshburn, NCWM Assistant Director led the congregation in our Women's Ministries Song. "Committed to Ministry". Christie Lea Baker, itinerating missionary to Zimbabwe, Africa was given an opportunity to say "thank you" to the women of the North Carolina Conference for the love offering of $2,235.00 which was received for her during the March 2000 NCWM Retreat at Founder's Inn, Virginia Beach, VA.

NCWM Director, Linda Thomas then opened the business session by giving her "State of North Carolina Women's Ministries" report. She expressed her appreciation to God for undergirding her with physical strength and emotional stamina to meet each day's challenge. Special thanks were extended to the NCWM

Board members, District Directors, NCWM Historian, Dorothy Boyette, NC Girl's Ministries leaders. Ministers Wives Fellowship Director, Sylvia Long, Happy Hearts Director, Blanche Pollard, Couples Retreat Directors, Cathy Ward and Cathy Arthur and Past President's Club members. Those present were presented with a token of appreciation. Also, a special thank you was expressed to Goldsboro District Director Justine Lee. She has served for eight consecutive years in this district. Due to statue of limitations, we will be losing her. Justine has done a great job for the North Carolina Women's Ministries.

Linda also expressed her appreciation to the NC Conference Superintendent, Board Members and the RDC staff. Last but not least, Linda expressed her sincere appreciation to her family and her husband, Joe, for all their love, support and encouragement.

Director Thomas reported to the convention delegates that the NCWM Board had approved the purchase of a computer at the cost of approximately $1900.00 to be used by the NCWM Secretary/Treasurer. A vote was taken to approve that the funds for this purchase be taken out of Conference Project Funds. The vote was unanimous.

Director Thomas was presented a gift by the NCWM Board as a token of love and appreciation for all of her hard work and dedication to the women of the North Carolina Conference. We are proud to have her serve as NCWM Women's Ministries Director.

Janice Marshburn expressed her appreciation to the local W.M. groups for supporting our Sharing Sister program and encouraged them to have a "share & prayer time" together. She also thanked them for their participation in the Houses of Prayer program (brochures were included in packet). She suggested that the ladies get involved with the "five Blessings" ministry (brochure also included in packet) as well as a "prayer walk in neighborhoods". The LINK which is provided by the World Missions Ministries in conjunction with World Intercession Network is a guide for intercessory prayer for our missionaries. "Together We Can" makes a difference with prayer.

Patsy Deese expressed her appreciation to the local Women's Ministries groups for their support of Harvest Train and to the ATAM Ministry. A video was shown from the Royal Home, which gave a glimpse of the life of a young girl living at one of the homes. The ladies were encouraged to bring their gifts, decorate a vehicle and participate in the Harvest Train on Tuesday, November 21st to support the Falcon Children's Homes. (Calendars for receiving commodities for Harvest Train are included in packet).

Meshelder Richardson thanked the ladies for their support of the Blanche L. King Scholarship Fund and the Agnes Robinson Missions Fund. Also, appreciation was extended for their support of the Missionary Sponsor Plan, which was designed so that all of our missionaries are remembered on their birthdays, at Christmas and special occasions (Additional information on mission support is included in the convention packet).

Phyllis Harrell with the assistance of Director Thomas awarded the Feast of Ingathering Scholarships of $150.00 each to the following recipients: Zeb Harrell, Steven Jones, Sara Lucas, Ashley McCandless and Beth Wood. Phyllis then shared with the group a plan to charter a bus to the Feast of Ingathering. October 8th- 10th to Emmanuel and Holmes Bible College. A video NIGHTMARE ON SPRINGS STREET, produced by Emmanuel students and staff was shown to the congregation. The video gave us an idea of how things would be at Emmanuel College without the support of the North Carolina Women's Ministries.

NCWM Secretary-Treasurer, Patsy Deese assisted Director Thomas in presenting plaques and bars to the local Women's Ministries groups earning awards for the year 1999. Those receiving Certificate of Excellence (100 points). Award of Superiority Plague (100 points for 4 consecutive years). Award of Superiority Bar (100 points for 4 consecutive years-plaque earned in previous years) and Award of Three-Star Superiority Bar (100 points for 12 consecutive years) were asked to come forward for a group photograph. (Certificates were included in the local director's packet).

Special recognition was extended to Bizzell Grove, Bethel, Greenville First, Ebenezer and Moore's Chapel for receiving a score of 100 on the annual evaluation for thirteen (13) consecutive years.

Mrs. Ruth Creel gave the Memoirs Report.

The NCWM Board as a special project requested that the local W.M. groups bring all of their GEMS material to the convention. This material will be shipped to John & Geraleen Talmage, missionaries to Africa for use on the mission field. To defray the cost of shipping this material, an offering was received in the amount of $264.52. Two of our young Missionettes held boxes to receive this offering. We are grateful for their participation.

Mrs. Faye Bland presented special music for the convention program. NCWM Board Member, Meshelder Richardson, gave a tribute to Minister's Wives. NC Ministers' Wives Fellowship Director Sylvia Long gave us a "Ministers' Wives Perspective". Then she and Janice Marshburn presented a skit on expectations of a ministers' wife.

Mrs. Phyllis Harrell introduced the speaker for the convention. Mrs. Fay Hedgepeth serves as a board member on the IPHC MWF Board. She is the wife of Rev. John Hedgepeth pastor of Northwood Temple P. H. Church in Fayetteville. Mrs. Hedgepeth used the scripture, Matthew 28:19-20. She challenged us to look at our mission statement and see what we are doing. We are to exhort one another. God wants each of us to build a love relationship with him but we must be ready for change when this partnership begins. John 4:23, "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him".

The convention came to a close as Director Thomas requested all ministers' wives to come forward and the other ladies surround them in a circle of prayer.

After announcements were made, we dismissed with the W. M. benediction.

The beautiful floral arrangement was provided by Women's Ministries of St. John Pentecostal Holiness Church in loving memory of Mrs. Betty Jean Hjortness.

Respectfully submitted,
Patsy C. Deese
NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
1999-2000 REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

And she said, "I will surely go…."
Judges 4:9a

The year 1999 was designated the year of "Vision for Mission" by the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. "Mobilized for Missions" is the theme for this year of 2000. We are reminded that, once we see the vision from God, we must act upon it.

In the fourth chapter of Judges, we have a great example of a valiant woman of God who did just that. Debroah heard from God; and when she was challenged to go to an unlikely place, she mobilized for the mission at hand. When Barak told her he would not go without her, she answered, "I will surely go…"

As we are embarking on a new century, God is opening doors for women to move out into places of ministry heretofore never explored. God is mobilizing a great force to fulfill His mission on earth. North Carolina Women's Ministries has accepted the challenge to be a part of this great move of God. We are ready to go where He leads. As your leader, I have had opportunity to "surely go" to numerous places of service in behalf of Women's Ministries.

It is an honor to represent you on the General IPHC Women's Ministries Board and was a special joy to host the General WM Board meeting in North Carolina in November of 1999. General WM Board members enjoyed being in Falcon for the Harvest Train and visiting Falcon Children's Home and the Royal Home in Salemburg. They now have a greater appreciation for those ministries.

Since last convention, I have traveled across the North Carolina Conference promoting Women's Ministries. I have held workshops and training sessions. Planned and executed a retreat, visited local meetings, participated in district rallies, spoken for WM Founder Day services and even done some small group counseling. I can truthfully say you have blessed me by having me in your presence. My life is so enriched by your friendship and support.

Girls Ministries has been an exciting element of the WM work this past year as we have transitioned from GEMS to Missionettes. In October, 1999 a regional training was held to prepare local church women as coordinators and club sponsors for this new program. North Carolina conference was well represented in that training held at Gospel Tabernacle PH Church in Dunn, NC. Since then others have also been trained and are certified leaders. Almost monthly now we are having new Girls Ministries groups from across our conference. What better investment can Women's Ministries make than in the lives of our girls!

This year also marks a transition time for Ministers Wives Fellowship. At the discretion of the IPHC General Board of Administration and General Executive Board, Ministers Wives Fellowship is no longer under the umbrella of Women's Ministries but is now a separate entity. We wish MWF and our ministers' wives well as they embark on this new approach. Women's Ministries certainly pledges to work hand-in-hand with Ministers Wives Fellowship for we must truly be partners if we are to be successful in the local, conference and international outreach of the women of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Happy Hearts continues to thrive and grow. They now meet in three regional meetings twice a year. The big event in 1999 was a bus trip to Red Hook PH Church in Brooklyn, New York, to deliver Christmas stockings which they had made for ministry to children in that church and community. They also toured Lancaster, Pennsylvania. The trip was such a success that another one is being planned for Fall 2000.

The Mary-Elizabeth Mentor Ministry is catching on in many of our churches. It is exciting to see the elder women partnering with younger women as mentors. It is equally exciting to see younger women showing interest in the needs and concerns of the elderly. Great lessons are being learned from both perspectives.

Prayer is a great focus in Women's Ministries. This year each WM member is challenged to win at least three people to the Lord. Houses of Prayer is an initiative to encourage us to pray for our neighborhoods.

After all, prayer is the key to Heaven. As women of God, we must rely on this resource if we are to be effective in our mission.

Janice, Patsy Meshelder and Phyllis have continued to practice the ultimate in teamwork in support of my leadership role. They have made themselves available to attend meetings or do the "dirty work" as I have needed them. Nothing seems to be too great a challenge or too lowly a task for either of them. I really appreciate their constant and faithful loyalty.

Each year as I prepare this report, it is again brought to my attention how great a God we serve. When I reflect over the activities we have held, the places we have been and look at the reports of your financial contributions to the ministry outreaches of NCWM. I am truly amazed at what a great difference YOU are making. You prove by your service that you are proud to be a part of the family of God, and I assure you that NCWM is proud that you are a part of its mission.

The NCWM Mission Statement...
Through study of God's Word, prayer, training and fellowship,
North Carolina Women's Ministries
will be an organization which welcomes and nurtures women
Of all ages and of diverse cultures and will implement new methods of ministry in the home, church and community.

Additionally, I have spent many hours on the telephone answering questions or concerns of local WM Leaders. The quarterly mailings are also quite time consuming. (Have you ever licked 500 envelopes in one day?) Much time is spent at the computer answering your letters and e-mails, as well as preparing the monthly EVANGEL and bi-monthly HELPING HAND manuscripts. Time is a precious commodity, and I seem to have every hour of the day packed full. However, I believe in what I am doing. I believe that Women's Ministries is a vital arm of our local churches, and I feel that my time is well spent in promoting its programs and ideals.

Again, a special word of thanks to my board members for serving as my substitute of several occasions during the year. Due to the death of a close friend, I was unable to attend the Directors Council in May. They did a great job with that. Also, Janice, Patsy & Meshelder helped with the District Conference Workshops that I could not attend. It means a lot to have dependable and willing workers on your team.

Again, on the home front, we have had another wedding this year. That, combined with the joy of being a grandmother to Sarah and all the other extras in my life, has made for another very busy and fulfilling year. My prayer is that God will allow me to be busy about His work until He calls me home.

NCWM SPECIAL PROJECT:

At the 2000 NCWM Retreat, we were honored to have one of our own itinerating missionaries, Christie Lea Baker, speak for us. Following her presentation, an offering was received to help with her support. A gift of $2,105 was presented to Christie. Thank you for helping to send the gospel to Africa through Christie.

APPRECIATION:

Thanks be to God for undergirding me with physical strength and emotional stamina to meet each day's challenge. I daily depend upon Psalm 16:3. "Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established."

Thanks to my husband, Joe, for enduring all the time I spend in front of the computer and on the phone; for traveling with me to the various churches; for lending an ear when I need to share a burden or offering advice when I ask for it. His supportive attitude is a blessing.

Thanks to NCWM Board Members... JANICE MARSHBURN, PATSY DEESE, MESHELDER RICHARDSON & PHYLLIS HARRELL. Each of us are uniquely different; and because of our various perspectives on matters, I feel we really do make a good team. We can bring any issue to the table and talk openly and freely about it. We have total trust in each other. These ladies care deeply about your concerns and the concerns of Women's Ministries at large. They are true jewels and I know you appreciate them as I do. They, too, are women who give the answer, "I will surely go..."

Thanks to NCWM District Directors... JACKIE JONES, PATSY PAYNE, JUSTINE LEE, TERESA SMITH, JENNY FAIRCLOTH, SHARON MARTIN, LOIS TRUEBLOOD, LILLY LANGSTON, CAROL DAVIS, MARJORIE TEACHEY, JACKIE THOMPSON & TERESA NELSON. These ladies serve a liaisons within the districts. Their role is to further promote WM on the home front by organizing rallies, leadership meetings, etc. They are also seen at the Conference functions serving as registrars and helpers. They make a worthy contribution to the success of NCWM. With regret, due to statue of limitations, we will be losing Justine Lee this year. A special thanks to Justine for serving for eight consecutive years as a district director. She deserves accolades.

Thanks to NCWM Historian....DOROTHY BOYETTE. She continues to snap the Kodak moments and organize the photos in the album to keep a pictorial history of the activities of NCWM. She also displays them for your viewing at special occasions. We really appreciate her dedication.

Thanks for NC Girls Ministries Leaders...SANDRA BRITT, DEBBIE HAWLEY, DEBBIE HAMILTON & DIANNE BUNN. They have faced up to the challenge of transitioning to Missionettes. They are preparing now for their first big training in October. We appreciate their commitment to Girls Ministries.

Thanks to Ministers Wives Fellowship Director... SYLVIA LONG. She and her committee have provided NC Conference ministers' wives with opportunities for training and fellowship. As this ministry becomes a separate entity, we wish Sylvia the best in her leadership role and express our appreciation for a job well done.

Thanks to Happy Hearts Director...BLANCHE POLLARD, who is assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY & MARGARET POTTER. These ladies do an excellent job in planning the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. This is evident in the excitement at each meeting and the growth that continues to take place. These ladies are truly meeting a need of our senior constituents.

Thanks to Couples Retreat Directors... CATHY WARD & CATHY ARTHUR. Again this year, they and their husbands outdid themselves to provide for another great retreat. The stay in Myrtle Beach, the seminar by Rev. Ron White, the food, the entertainment and the fellowship were all outstanding. The 2000 Retreat scheduled for November in Williamsburg is already planned, and you won't want to miss it. Thanks, Cathy & Cathy, for these much enjoyed and much needed times of marriage enrichment.

Thanks to Past Presidents' Club... DOLLIE DAVENPORT chairs this support group. Dollie, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT AND MARY BELLE JOHNSON have been and continue to be mentors for me. I admire each of them and appreciate their support and various means of encouragement.

Thanks to NC Conference Superintendent, Board & RDC Personnel... It is a real joy to be serving in conference leadership alongside our superintendent, Rev. T. E. Long, and his board. The Superintendent Leadership Advisory Council has served as a forum for each conference leader to share his/her ministry and better correlate the conference activities. Also, a special word of appreciation is due to the RDC staff for the many helps they give us.

Thanks to my Home Church... Holly Hill Church has been most supportive of my tenure as NCWM Director. As a Sunday School teacher, organist and choir director, my Sundays away for WM business means finding a substitute. This year special thanks to Sandra McCandless and Barbara Morris for teaching Sunday School for me; to Brenda Laughinghouse and Belinda Loftin for playing the organ; to Sandra McCandless and the choir for just going ahead without me. Special thanks also to my former pastor, Paul Loftin, and my current pastor Jonathon Griffin, for their understanding and prayerful support of my ministry. These are people who are always there for me, and I truly appreciate them.

Thanks to Convention Participants...those of you who have participated in this event, whether on stage or in the background. Program participants, district directors as registrars, Mount Carmel WM ladies with refreshments. Missionettes helping with offering. Rev. David Wheeler operating sound...all of you have contributed to the success of our convention, and we appreciate you.

Thanks to each of you who attended...NCWM would not exist if not for you who are here today. Your attendance and contribution to conference activities and programs show us that you care. What you do on the local level is what this program is all about. We are here to assist you in any way we can, but we truly want you to know how much you are appreciated.

Thanks to local WM Leadership... To all of you who serve on local WM Councils, I want to say a special thanks. In spite of the flood that devastated so many areas of our conference, you have led your people in continuing support of the ministries of NCWM. You, too, are investing your time and effort in a worthy cause. In 1999 you gave nearly $78,000 for our church-supported colleges at Feast of Ingathering and nearly $14,000 for Christmas Missions, not to mention Harvest Train, Mug-a-Month, ATAM, King Scholarship, Founder's Day offerings and various other outreaches. You are commended for your leadership.

My challenge to you is to move at God's leading. You truly are an army of Deborahs who answer God's call with, "I will surely go!"

May God bless you richly as you continue in His service.

Much love,

Linda M. Thomas
